

About Ghost Ranch

Ghost Ranch, 21,000 acres located in northern New Mexico, stands proud as an ecumenical and interfaith education and retreat center of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). For more than half a century people have come for spiritual development, to discuss issues of peace and justice, to work together in creation care, to paint and write, to hike and ride horseback, to research rich and globally renowned archeological and fossil quarries, to see where Georgia O’Keeffe painted or simply to rest and renew their spirits.

Three Rivers Flowing Home: Feng Shui, Deep Time and Ceremony July 14, 2014 - July 20, 2014

Home is where we sense We Belong; it’s also the staging area from where we affect the world around us. Join multi-cultural Feng Shui pioneer, Laurelyn Baker, and Deep Time educator, Karen Kudebeh, for an inspiring week immersed in natural beauty, ceremony and insights from Eastern philosophy and Western science. Stories– spanning 13.8 billion years of the Universe, Earth, Life, and Place– will be recounted, and both First Nation ceremony and Feng Shui will be integrated with the perspectives given to us by science. A fusion of these three lineages facilitates and anchors left brain–right brain understandings of Origin, Place, and Possibility. Ghost Ranch is the perfect staging area to take those possibilities – clarified during our time together– back to our homes and into the world. Participants can bring a floor plan of their current residence in order to obtain personalized Feng Shui ideas for this effort. An enriched sense of Home, developed throughout our collective journey, will be among the many treasures that people receive from their experience at Ghost Ranch.
